

Privacy Policy

Last changed: 13 October, 2020

This privacy policy applies between you, the User of this Website and Anker Technology, the owner and provider of this Website. Anker Technology takes the privacy of your information very seriously. This privacy policy applies to our use of any and all Data collected by us or provided by you in relation to your use of the Website. This privacy policy should be read alongside, and in addition to, our Terms and Conditions. Please read this privacy policy carefully.

1. In this privacy policy, the following definitions are used:
 - Data: collectively all information that you submit to Anker Technology via the Website. This definition incorporates, where applicable, the definitions provided in the Data Protection Laws;
 - Cookies: a small text file placed on your computer by this Website when you visit certain parts of the Website and/or when you use certain features of the Website. Details of the cookies used by this Website are set out in the clause below (Cookies);
 - Data Protection Laws: any applicable law relating to the processing of personal Data, including but not limited to the Directive 96/46/EC (Data Protection Directive) or the GDPR, and any national implementing laws, regulations and secondary legislation, for as long as the GDPR is effective in the Netherlands;
 - GDPR: the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679;
 - Anker Technology, or us: Anker Technology is a company incorporated in the Netherlands and it operates the Website <https://ankertechnology.com> with registered number 80298176 whose registered address is Avercampstraat 1 1072 RA Amsterdam the Netherlands
 - EU Cookie Law: the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 as amended by the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) (Amendment) Regulations 2011;
 - User or you: any third party that accesses the Website and is not either (i) employed by Anker Technology and acting in the course of their employment or (ii) engaged as a consultant or otherwise providing services to Anker Technology and accessing the Website in connection with the provision of such services;
 - Website: the website that you are currently using, <https://ankertechnology.com>, and any sub-domains of this site unless expressly excluded by their own terms and conditions.
2. In this privacy policy, unless the context requires a different interpretation:
 - the singular includes the plural and vice versa;
 - references to sub-clauses, clauses, schedules or appendices are to sub-clauses, clauses, schedules or appendices of this privacy policy;
 - a reference to a person includes firms, companies, government entities, trusts and partnerships;
 - “including” is understood to mean “including without limitation”;
 - reference to any statutory provision includes any modification or amendment of it;
 - the headings and sub-headings do not form part of this privacy policy.

3. This privacy policy applies only to the actions of Anker Technology and Users with respect to this Website. It does not extend to any websites that can be accessed from this Website including, but not limited to, any links we may provide to social media websites.
4. For purposes of the applicable Data Protection Laws, Anker Technology is the “data controller”. This means that Anker Technology determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, your Data is processed.
5. We may collect the following Data, which includes personal Data, from you:
 - IP address (automatically collected);
 - web browser type and version (automatically collected);
 - operating system (automatically collected);
 - a list of URLs starting with a referring site, your activity on this Website, and the site you exit to (automatically collected);
 - in each case, in accordance with this privacy policy.
6. We collect Data in the following ways:
 - data is given to us by you; and
 - data is collected automatically.
7. Anker Technology will collect your Data in a number of ways, in each case, in accordance with this privacy policy, for example:
 - when you contact us through the Website, by telephone, post, e-mail or through any other means;
 - when you use our services.
8. To the extent that you access the Website, we will collect your Data automatically, for example:
 - we automatically collect some information about your visit to the Website. This information helps us to make improvements to Website content and navigation, and includes your IP address, the date, times and frequency with which you access the Website and the way you use and interact with its content.
 - we will collect your Data automatically via cookies, in line with the cookie settings on your browser. For more information about cookies, and how we use them on the Website, see the section below.
9. Any or all of the above Data may be required by us from time to time in order to provide you with the best possible service and experience when using our Website. Specifically, Data may be used by us for the following reasons, in each case, in accordance with this privacy policy:
 - internal record keeping;
 - improvement of our products / services.
10. We may use your Data for the above purposes if we deem it necessary to do so for our legitimate interests. If you are not satisfied with this, you have the right to object in certain circumstances.
11. We will use technical and organizational measures to safeguard your Data.

12. Technical and organizational measures include measures to deal with any suspected data breach. If you suspect any misuse or loss or unauthorized access to your Data, please let us know immediately by contacting us via this e-mail address: data@ankertechnology.com.
13. Unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law, we will only hold your Data on our systems for the period necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this privacy policy or until you request that the Data be deleted.
14. Even if we delete your Data, it may persist on backup or archival media for legal, tax or regulatory purposes.
15. You have the following rights in relation to your Data:
 - Right to access – the right to request (i) copies of the information we hold about you at any time, or (ii) that we modify, update or delete such information. If we provide you with access to the information we hold about you, we will not charge you for this, unless your request is “manifestly unfounded or excessive.” Where we are legally permitted to do so, we may refuse your request. If we refuse your request, we will tell you the reasons why.
 - Right to correct – the right to have your Data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
 - Right to erase – the right to request that we delete or remove your Data from our systems.
 - Right to restrict our use of your Data – the right to “block” us from using your Data or limit the way in which we can use it.
 - Right to data portability – the right to request that we move, copy or transfer your Data.
 - Right to object – the right to object to our use of your Data including where we use it for our legitimate interests.
16. To make enquiries, exercise any of your rights set out above, or withdraw your consent to the processing of your Data (where consent is our legal basis for processing your Data), please contact us via this e-mail address: data@ankertechnology.com.
17. If you are not satisfied with the way a complaint you make in relation to your Data is handled by us, you may be able to refer your complaint to the relevant data protection authority. For the Netherlands, this is the Dutch Data Protection Authority (Dutch DPA or Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens). The Dutch DPA contact details can be found on their website at <https://autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl>.
18. It is important that the Data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your Data changes during the period for which we hold it.
19. This Website may, from time to time, provide links to other websites. We have no control over such websites and are not responsible for the content of these websites. This privacy policy does not extend to your use of such websites. You are advised to read the privacy policy or statement of other websites prior to using them.
20. Anker Technology may, from time to time, expand or reduce our business and this may involve the sale and/or the transfer of control of all or part of Anker Technology. Data provided by Users will, where it is relevant to any part of our business so transferred, be transferred along with that part and the new owner or newly controlling party will, under the terms of this privacy policy, be permitted to use the Data for the purposes for which it was originally supplied to us.

21. We may also disclose Data to a prospective purchaser of our business or any part of it.
22. In the above instances, we will take steps with the aim of ensuring your privacy is protected.
23. This Website may place and access certain Cookies on your computer. Anker Technology uses Cookies to improve your experience of using the Website. Anker Technology has carefully chosen these Cookies and has taken steps to ensure that your privacy is protected and respected at all times.
24. All Cookies used by this Website are used in accordance with current EU Cookie Law.
25. Before the Website places Cookies on your computer, you will be presented with a message bar requesting your consent to set those Cookies. By giving your consent to the placing of Cookies, you are enabling Anker Technology to provide a better experience and service to you. You may, if you wish, deny consent to the placing of Cookies; however certain features of the Website may not function fully or as intended.
26. This Website may place the following Cookies:
 - Strictly necessary cookies: These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They may include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website, use a shopping cart or make use of e-billing services.
 - Analytical/performance cookies: They allow us to recognize and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
27. You can choose to enable or disable Cookies in your internet browser. By default, most internet browsers accept Cookies, but this can be changed. For further details, please consult the help menu in your internet browser.
28. You can choose to delete Cookies at any time; however, you may lose any information that enables you to access the Website more quickly and efficiently including, but not limited to, personalization settings.
29. It is recommended that you ensure that your internet browser is up-to-date and that you consult the help and guidance provided by the developer of your internet browser if you are unsure about adjusting your privacy settings.
30. For more information generally on cookies, including how to disable them, please refer to aboutcookies.org. You will also find details on how to delete cookies from your computer.
31. You may not transfer any of your rights under this privacy policy to any other person. We may transfer our rights under this privacy policy where we reasonably believe your rights will not be affected.

32. If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this privacy policy (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision will, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this privacy policy will not be affected.
33. Unless otherwise agreed, no delay, act or omission by a party in exercising any right or remedy will be deemed a waiver of that, or any other, right or remedy.
34. This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted according to the law of the Netherlands. All disputes arising under the Agreement will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Dutch court.
35. Anker Technology reserves the right to change this privacy policy as we may deem necessary from time to time or as may be required by law. Any changes will be immediately posted on the Website and you are deemed to have accepted the terms of the privacy policy on your first use of the Website following the alterations. You may contact Anker Technology by email at data@ankertechnology.com.
